

Participating Teams

Ballincollig GAA

It is a privilege to welcome the return of Baile an Chollaigh for a fourth year. One of the Rebel County's largest clubs, who are rightly proud to represent one of the most vibrant and exciting GAA clubs in the country.

Bruff GAA

Also returning for their fourth year are An Brú in east County Limerick. It is a honor to host these Shannon-siders who are one of Ireland's oldest GAA clubs, established in 1887. They certainly know how to produce some exceptional hurlers!

Ardclough GAA

We are delighted to welcome Ardclough GAA this year for the first time. Founded in 1936, Ardclough GAA is a core pillar of the local community in County Kildare. Renowned for its rich hurling heritage, including 13 Kildare Senior Hurling titles. Hon the Clochs!

JK Brackens GAA

Another fantastic team returning for a fourth year, from the Parish of Templemore, Clonmore and Killea, JK Brackens represent the Premier County, and some might say 'The Home of Hurling'.

Naas GAA

We are also honored to be joined this year by Naas GAA Club. One of Kildare's largest and most successful dual-code clubs. Naas holds a unique place in history, with its origins stretching back to 1885 when it participated in one of the first ever recorded Gaelic football matches.

Round Towers GAA

It is a privilege to introduce Round Towers for the first time. Towers are based in Kildare Town with a rich history in Gaelic football and 10 senior championships. The club has developed a thriving hurling and camogie section in recent years, with several players representing Kildare at underage level.

Athenry GAA

A warm welcome to St. Mary's GAA club, Athenry this year. They are celebrated for their rich history, boasting three All-Ireland senior club hurling titles (1997, 2000, 2001) and multiple senior hurling championships, establishing Athenry as a dominant force in the country.

Athenry Camogie Club

We are also proud to welcome Athenry Camogie Club. Founded in 1973, Átha an Rí Camogie Club in County Galway is a powerhouse of Irish sport, celebrated as the 2025/2026 All-Ireland Senior Club Champions and proud home to elite county stars under the motto "Strength in Unity".

Ratoath GAA

Also joining us for the first time is Ratoath GAA club. We are thrilled to host this vibrant club based in County Meath that fields over 50 teams across football, hurling and camogie. The club achieved historic Meath Senior Football Championship titles in 2019, 2020, and 2022, alongside competitive success in Leinster.

St. Brigid's GAA

Home to the 2003 Leinster Football Champions, St Brigid's GAA of Castleknock and Blanchardstown would like to welcome all the teams to Russell Park for what we hope will be a fun and memorable day for all.
